Spring is here and it is time for sprucing up your yard with some wonderful native plants and refreshing your home by getting rid of things that you don't need or want any more. Organizing your own yard sale requires a lot of work and a lot of time so let the Ojai Valley Museum do the work for you and at the same time, help the museum raise some funds for their programs. Also if you know anyone who is moving, please ask them to save some treasures for the sale.

This colossal event, THE OJAI VALLEY MUSEUM NATIVE PLANT AND TREASURE SALE at the museum, will be Saturday, May 25 from 9:00 to 2:00. If you have items to donate, please email me at ascanlin@pacbell.net , text Ann @ 805-218-8588 or call her at 805-646-6460.

It is a great place to be on that Saturday with a lot of activity, great bargains and a fun group of people. We need volunteers to help price items and to be on site the day of the sale. If you could help the museum make some serious money, we would be so grateful if you would volunteer. Call me and thank you for whatever you can do!!!
